Sal Testa and Nancy Hable, Exchange Place Businesses, discussed with Borough Council the problem that they were having with people parking all day on Exchange Place and that the limited time parking is not being enforced. President Turkington informed them that we had changed the times for all of the limited parking areas to 8:00 a.m. to 8:00 p.m. except holidays and Sundays by ordinance and that the new signs had just been delivered. Mr. Testa and Mrs. Hable did not have a problem with changing the times but requested that the time limits must be enforced.

David Prosser, Harmony Road Resident, informed Borough Council that he felt that vehicles were traveling over the speed limit on Harmony Road. President Turkington informed Mr. Prosser that we had ran speed check on Harmony Road and since the stop signs had been added at Maple Avenue; he felt that traffic had slowed down.
