VISITORS:

Sal Testa, Brothers Pizza, complained about the removal of his sign from his rental property on Evergreen Street advertising a weekly special for his restaurant. Mr. Testa felt that he was being singled out because there were other businesses that had directional signs that were not located on the business property and were not removed. Borough Council will review the existing ordinance and will see if they can resolve the problem.

Patti Olenik, Executive Director, The Garage Community and Youth Center, gave an update on the Garage in West Grove.
